Other updates:

- Mural Update 😊
 - Lot of consultation including parent community, staff, Sqwá
 - Carrielynn Victor - draft mural proposal
 - She is calling it her “mural of the year”
 - Draft mural proposal was shown which featured landscape, house posts, salmon, canoe pull, salmon eggs, river
 - Covering the whole front of the school
 - Starts in May, should only take 10 days
- McCammon basketball team
 - Sponsor teachers and student teachers coaching.
- Affordability fund
 - Continue to have gift cards available.
- Staffing
 - New division is staying next year. May have some teacher changes due to maternity leave. Currently McCammon has 285 students.
- Grade 5 - Year end field trip (to be discussed later in the evening).

● Treasurer’s Report

- February was a busy month.
 - Raffle
 - Movie night
 - Hot lunches
 - Staff appreciation
- March was also busy
 - Mitchell Soups
 - Hot dog hot lunch
 - Purchase a Perk
 - Hot Lunch

● DPAC Report

- No public meeting since last time.
- AGM is coming up.

● Fundraising Committee

- Movie Night May 2 (Dog Man) 6pm

- Auction items April 28?
- Selling 50 planters April 16-30 (made by custodian).

● Hot Lunch Committee

- Panago made a lot of money but there were hiccups.
- White Spot is next (orders closed today, counting tomorrow).
- Opa was able to work with our budget so we'll try them too.
- Booster Juice is willing to deliver for free and do the majority of the sorting too. Might be trying for Primary Fun Day.

Special Committee Reports

Grade 5 Committee

- Fundraising balance should be around $1800.
- Isabelle asked for possible swag/goodie bags. Students remember last year's grade 5 students got a cup of candy - Noel says this was a gift from a parent, not the school.
- Isabelle was thinking about doing reusable cups filled with candy with a keychain. ($250 budget?)
- Trampoline Park was decided. Reservation and buses still need to be booked.
- Should be about $1550.

Community Day Committee

- May 23 - 4-730 p.m.
- Liability insurance is still being pursued for bounce house.
- Secured Kona Ice and Oddburger
- Concession stand with bannock
- Reptile room
- Looking to rent/buy yard games
- Vendor tables
- Possible cotton candy machine
- Work order to district for extra tables, chairs, extension cords, etc.
- $500 for yard games for future years
- $500 to cover rental costs, misc costs (cotton candy machine, etc.)
- Michelle motioned for up to $500 for yard games, $500 for misc costs.
- Matthew seconded.
- All in favour.

Unfinished Business and General Orders

- June 6 - Cultus Lake Waterslides (booked including buses).
 - Michelle reminded everyone that the PAC set aside fundraising money from the coupon book sales in September to go towards this field trip (approximately $450).

- We discussed contributing more funds, $2150, to bring cost per student down to $20 (instead of $29/student).
 - Matthew motioned to contribute $2150.
 - Anna seconded.
 - All in favour.
- June 13 - Primary Fun Day

New Business

- AGM Prep - next month
 - Nomination box will be put at the office.
 - Nominations can also be sent to PAC email.
 - Forms to be sent home.

Questions from the Floor

- Sports Day vs Primary Fun Day - competition can be a sore spot. Not against a “Sports Day” but not something that can happen quickly this year.

Announcements

None.

Next Meeting

Next meeting is the AGM on Thursday, May 8, 2025, at 6:00 p.m. in the Multipurpose Room.

Adjournment

Meeting adjourned at 7:03 p.m.
